Summary:

This legal notice, dated February 15, 2020, is from Sarthak Mishra's lawyer, Satish Shrivastava, to Vishal Gondal, founder of GOQii Technologies. Mishra alleges Gondal defamed him by publicly criticizing online real-money gaming (Rummy, Poker, fantasy leagues) as gambling, despite court rulings establishing them as skill-based games. Gondal's statements, including a Medianama article and tweets, allegedly damaged Mishra's reputation with family and colleagues. Mishra demands a ₹500,000 compensation, a public apology, and a cessation of defamatory statements. Failure to comply will result in civil and criminal defamation lawsuits.

Parties:

Sarthak Mishra, Vishal Gondal, Satish Shrivastava, Cybercrime Investigation Cell

Date/Time:

Notice Date: February 15, 2020

Medianama Article Date: January 11, 2021

Apology Deadline: 15 days from receipt of notice

Damages Payment Deadline: 15 days from receipt of notice

Money/Penalties:

₹500,000 damages, ₹50,000 legal fees

Obligations:

Gondal must issue a public apology and pay damages within 15 days.

Risks:

- Defamation/Reputation: Gondal's statements caused reputational harm to Mishra, potentially leading to civil and criminal liability under the Indian Penal Code and the Information Technology Act.
- Damages & Remedies: Mishra seeks significant monetary compensation for reputational damage.
- Unfair Trade Practices: Gondal's actions might constitute disparagement and unfair trade practices under Intellectual Property Laws.

Suggestion:

Gondal should seriously consider settling this matter to avoid costly litigation. A prompt apology and compensation might mitigate the potential damage. Legal counsel should be sought immediately.
